

The School of Pharmacy is committed to providing a quality education in an environment conducive for learning. In addition, your safety and the safety of others is paramount while enrolled as a UMKC pharmacy student. As part of this commitment, no person is allowed to attend a class or laboratories unless officially enrolled for credit. This policy does not apply to individuals invited for the purpose of making announcements or delivering guest lectures. Exceptions may also be made for individuals with accommodations approved through Student Disability Services or the Office of Affirmative Action. Please seek advice from the Associate Dean for Student Affairs with questions regarding the policy.
